Year: 1

Semester: 1

Professor: Dr. Jorge Gonzalez Alonso

1. COMPETENCIES and LEARNING OUTCOMES

1.1. Competencies

Basic competencies

CB6 To possess and understand knowledge that provides the basis and opportunity to be original in the development and application of ideas, often within a research context.

CB7 That students know how to apply the knowledge acquired and the capacity for problem solving in new and lesser-known environments within the broadest (or multi-disciplinary context) in relation to their area of study.

CB8 That students are capable of integrating knowledge and facing the complexity of opinion forming starting from information that, being incomplete or limited, includes reflections on the social and ethical responsibilities that are linked to the application of opinions and judgements.

CB9 That students know how to communicate their conclusions, and the knowledge and reasoning that supports them to a specialist and non-specialist public in a clear and unambiguous manner.

CB10 That students possess the learning ability that allows them to continue studying in a way that will be largely self-directed or autonomous.

General competencies

CG2 To know about the specific problems of foreign language teaching in both linguistic and cultural terms in a bilingual environment.

CG3 To apply the knowledge acquired in decision making in relation to the different factors involved in the teaching and learning of foreign languages.

CG4 To be capable of carrying out a critical analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of new and complex ideas that allow autonomy in training and the ongoing updating of knowledge in the area of foreign language training.

CG6 To know how to communicate with colleagues within the academic community and with society in general about their area of knowledge in an environment of bilingual education.

CG7 To acquire basic theoretical knowledge designed as the foundation of an informed teaching practice in an environment of bilingual education.

CG9 To analyse the psychological processes and factors applicable to the learning of a foreign language.

Specific competencies

CE4 To develop and apply didactic methodologies adapted to the diversity of students in an English/Spanish bilingual environment.

CE5 To evaluate linguistic as well as social and cultural content in bilingual English/Spanish teaching.

CE6 To incorporate new strategies, teaching materials, and information technology to activities in the English/Spanish bilingual classroom.

CE8 To be capable of using specialist terminology in English and Spanish in the field of second language acquisition.

CE9 To be capable of evaluating, selecting, and using literary texts for the development of linguistic competence and their use in accessing the socio-cultural context of foreign language teaching (Spanish/English).

CE10 To be capable of communicating with fluency at C1 level of the European Common Framework.

CE11 To be capable of applying different educational strategies of communicative abilities (interaction, production, and oral and written reception) in accordance with the characteristics of foreign language learners.

CE12 To know about the different variables in the process of foreign teaching/learning from the student's perspective and their communicative needs; both the process itself and their ongoing evaluation and certification.

CE13 To know and to know how to apply the advantages of the communicative approach and learning by tasks method for linguistic interaction in English and Spanish.

1.2 Learning outcomes

At the end of the subject, the student must:

- Be capable of communicating reasonably on themes related to their area of study.
- Be capable of acquiring new knowledge in an autonomous manner in their field of study, the teaching/learning of foreign languages.
- Know the linguistic and cultural problems of teaching/learning a foreign language.
- Know how to apply the knowledge acquired when taking decisions in relation to the factors involved in the process of bilingual teaching/learning.
- Be capable of carrying out a critical analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of new ideas in said field
- Know how to communicate with the academic community and society in general on foreign language teaching/learning
- Know how to base their teaching practice in an informed manner according to the knowledge acquired
- Be capable of knowing and understanding the different social, environmental, cultural and educational factors involved in the acquisition of a foreign language as well as the discursive and interactive aspects of the same

2. CONTENTS

2.1. Previous requirements

None

2.2. Description of content

- Psycholinguistics: questions and bibliographical sources
- Acquisition of the mother tongue (MT)
- Similarities and differences between MT and non-native languages

- Conductism
- Innatism
- Cognitivism
- Innatism
- Ambientalism
- Current trends in the studies of non-native languages
- Acquisition of grammar and lexis
- Language and the brain
- Characteristics of interlanguage
- The error in the IL: etiology and cognitive processes
- Classifications of errors from different perspectives
- The role of the MT in the construction of the IL

2.3. Detailed content

1.- Introduction to Psycholinguistics. Linguistic competence and communicative competence. Sub competences.
2.- First Language Acquisition and Second Language Learning. Similarities and differences
3.- Theories of Foreign Language Acquisition
4.- Language comprehension and production: spoken language processing
5.- Language comprehension and production: written language processing
6.- Cognition and the bilingual brain
7.- Interlanguage. Error analysis in real samples from academic contexts.

2.4. Training Activities

Blended modality

Training activities	Hours	Percentage of attendance
AF1. Teaching sessions	40	40%
AF2. Individual and group learning activities outside the teaching sessions	30	30%
AF3. Tutorials	10	10%
AF4. Complementary training activities	10	10%
AF7. Evaluation Activities	10	20%

Online modality

Training activities	Hours	Percentage of attendance
AF1. Teaching sessions	40	0%
AF2. Individual and group learning activities outside the teaching sessions	30	0%
AF3. Tutorials	10	0%
AF4. Complementary training activities	10	0%
AF7. Evaluation Activities	10	20%

2.5 Teaching methodologies

An active didactic methodology in which the student is the protagonist of their own learning process, and the teacher an expert in the field. The teacher will possess the knowledge of the materials and resources necessary to help the student in the learning process and to optimise their learning strategies. Through interaction and mutual co-operation, the student will achieve the competencies that they can then incorporate within their professional profile.

The teaching methodology will combine real-life and online teaching in the semi-present mode and online teaching in the online mode. This is therefore a mixed methodology that will be supported by the use of ICT as well as collaborative work (forums, chats, video-conferences) in accordance with the teacher's tools (agenda, announcements, files of materials, and links). For this purpose, the Virtual Campus will be used with the Blackboard Ultra platform. This interactive methodology requires the systematic and continuous active participation of the students and teachers.

3. EVALUATION SYSTEM

3.1. Grading

The grading system (R.D. 1125/2003, of 5th September) will be as follows:

- 0 - 4.9 Fail (SS)
- 5.0 - 6.9 Pass (AP)
- 7.0 - 8.9 Good (NT)
- 9.0 - 10 Excellent (SB)

The mention of "honors" may be obtained at the proposal of the professor of the subject after completing a tutored work. The teacher must write a report evaluating the contributions of the work.

3.2. Assessment

Ordinary or Extraordinary Calls

Blended and online Modalities

Assessment	Percentage
Participation in work groups and discussion	15%
Guided activities	25%
Final exam	60%

3.3. Restrictions

Minimum grade

In order to average the above weightings, it is necessary to obtain at least a grade of 5 in the final exam.

Attendance

Students who, without justification, fail to attend more than 75% of the face-to-face classes may be deprived of the right to take the exam in the regular exam.

Writing standards

Special attention will be paid in the papers, practices and written projects, as well as in the exams, to both the presentation and the content, taking care of the grammatical and spelling aspects. Failure to meet the minimum acceptable standards may result in points being deducted in such work.

3.4. Warning about plagiarism

The Universidad Antonio de Nebrija will not tolerate plagiarism or copying under any circumstances. It will be considered plagiarism the reproduction of paragraphs from texts other than the student's audit (Internet, books, articles, papers of colleagues...), when the original source is not cited. The use of quotations cannot be indiscriminate. Plagiarism is a crime.

If this type of practice is detected, it will be considered a Serious Misconduct and the sanction foreseen in the Student Regulations may be applied.
